

Historic Plan of Calvin College

Grand Rapids, Michigan, 1957

In 1876, Calvin College and Seminary was founded in downtown Grand Rapids. By 1957, the school had expanded to include college work besides training pastors and had become a full four-year college. At this time, Calvin began to build and move from the Franklin Campus to a new campus known as the Knollcrest Campus. The plan shown on this map is one of the proposed plans for the new Knollcrest campus. Information from <https://calvin.edu/about/history/>
